

Schoolwide Program, Working with Private Schools

Schoolwide Programs including development, implementation, and evaluation of the program will be discussed. The presenters will also go over the complexities of working with private schools under the equitable services component of Title I, Part A